

Downtown Renewal Project

The Downtown Renewal Project transformed Coronach's core with new sidewalks, underground infrastructure upgrades, green spaces, and fresh paving. The community received just under seven million dollars from Prairie Economic Development, which made this significant investment possible. The project faced its share of challenges, but the final result brought a more attractive and welcoming downtown for residents, businesses, and visitors.

